REV. RICHARD DAVIS DIES.

their courtesy and the dignified manner in which they conduct their funerals. More than a thousand people were unable to gain admittance to the church which was packed to its capacity and the sermon was delivered by District Superintendent Lee assisted by Dr. B. F. Abbott, pastor of Union Memorial Church, St. Louis, and many other ministerial brethren.

Telegrams and letters of condolence were received from many friends among whom were: Rev. F. S. Bowles, Louisiana, Mo.; Rev. Wm. Smith, Lexington, Mo.; Mrs. Annie Taylor, Heaman, Mo.; Dr. Robert R. Hayes on behalf of George R. Smith College, a large number of the faculty of which attended the funeral; Rev. B. F. Abbott, St. Louis; Rev. J. D. Walker, St. Joseph; Rev. Ray, Malta Bend; Rev. F. C. B. Washington, Chicago; Mrs. Lucie Gibson Lawrence, Kas.; The Methodist Ministers' Alliance of St. Louis, Mo.; and many others. A peculiar coincidence in Dr. Davis' death was that he had prepared to preach on the Sunday following his death upon the "Seven words of Jesus," divided as follows:

- 1st, Father forgive them.
- 2nd, To the thief, this day shalt thou be with me in paradise.
- 3rd, Woman behold thy son.
- 4th, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me.
- 5th, I thirst.
- 6th, It is finished.
- 7th, Father in thy hands I commend my spirit.

Every paragraph and especially the 7th fitted into the life and character of this splendid man of God.

The following letter was received from Rev. F. D. Wells, Sedalia, Mo.:

I was shocked when someone called me over my phone and informed me that your husband and my friend, the Rev. R. C. Davis, had passed into the great beyond. I am writing to inform you that you have my heartfelt sympathy and my prayer to God is that He will give you grace to bear up under your affliction.

Reverend Davis was an ideal preacher. While in Kansas City I always went to him for counsel and left him with a better understanding how to face the perplexing problems of church work. I regret so very much his death. Now Sister Davis do not let your faith fail you. Lean mightily upon the promises of your Heavenly Father. The will of God, not yours must be done. How well he fell asleep.

Like some proud river, widening toward the sea;
Calmly and grandly, silently and deep,
Life joined eternity.

F. D. WELLS,
Box No. 36
Sedalia, Mo.

The following letter was received by The Sun from William J. Devos, Evangelist of St. Louis, Mo.:

Dear Sir:—
A mighty Prince in Israel has fallen in the person of Rev. Richard Davis, D.D., while the great Centennial M. E. Church will lament his death and absence from them. Heaven will rejoice at his coming. This world is the land of the dying; the next is the land of the living. This reminds us of the fact that all created comforts. God is the lender; you are the borrower, not the owner.

Amid the gathering gloom of the even tide when the services had been concluded and the final words had been spoken and all that mortal man could do had been performed, the funeral cortege was formed and winding its way to beautiful Highland Cemetery, the body of this beloved saint of Christ was lowered to its earthly resting place and as the preacher said, "Earth to earth and ashes to ashes," it seemed as though angels lighted up the aching gloom and a mighty host in heaven sang: "Servant of God well done. Rest from thy blest employ. The battle fought, the victory won. Enter thy Master's joy."

ST. JOHN A. M. E. CHURCH.

Rev. J. C. Bell, Pastor.

Services Sunday at St. John were well attended. The Sunday School opened at the usual hour with the Superintendent, Mrs. E. Finley present, who with her untiring efforts is gradually increasing the attendance of the school. Some of the children coming as early as 7:00 o'clock. The pastor preached a very fine and instructive sermon. Mrs. Alex Hill was fellowshiped in the church Sunday morning. Class was well attended and the spirit ran high. Reports were splendid. Sunday night services were good spiritually as well as in attendance. Quite a few visitors were present all day. We invite you to come to our services. If you have no church home come and make this your home. Remember The Sun's Special Rate of $1.25 expires January 21.

ST. STEPHEN'S BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. J. W. Hulse, Pastor.

Clara Grear, Clerk.

Services were good all day. At 11 o'clock Rev. Mack Allen preached for us a soul-stirring sermon, subject "Wheel in the Middle of a Wheel." At 2:30 Sunday School was largely attended. Two new classes were organized. Collection for the Sunday School $10.65. At night, by special request of Dr. J. H. Williams, Grand Treasurer of U. B. F. and S. M. T's, and a number of his friends, the pastor preached, subject "The Resurrection of Jesus Christ." We are glad to say the Holy Ghost was with us at this service. There were six additions. Sisters: Coles, Adams and Fay. They are yet on the sick list. We pray for them a speedy recovery. On Tuesday the pastor preached the funeral of Sister Sallie Kirby Hudson, who died in the full triumph of faith. Sunday January 18 is Communion Day at St. Stephen Baptist church. If you enjoy Old Fashioned Southern Meetings come down. Baptizing at 5:30 p. m. Communion at night. Our pastor returned from Nashville, Tenn., in time to be with us on services, reporting a great Board Meeting. $1,000 raised for our great school which is now in operation in Nashville. Don't forget the Sun's Special Rate of $1.25 expires January 21.

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA.

By W. W. Mosley.

William Moore of Minneapolis, Minn., was in the city last week to see his father, Major Moore, who is confined with illness. H. K. Pinkett, Mr. Galloway of Omaha were in the city this week on business. Miss Anna Turner entertained the Epian Art Club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Mosley last Thursday night. Members of the A. M. E. church having cleared the debt on the church, held a mortgage burning last Thursday night, rendering a brief program in connection with it. The members of Mt. Zion Baptist Church have succeeded in cancelling their debt on the parsonage, hence the mortgage was burned last Sunday night. Several of the older members made short talks. The Sun's Special Rate of $1.25 expires January 21.

CHRISTMAS AT THE JACKSON

COUNTY NEGRO HOME.

The Superintendent of the Home

wishes to thank all of those who participated in the two Christmas parties given at the institution, which is now located near Lee Summit. The first celebration was held December

21, and we are obligated to our local

attorney, Mr. George Birmingham

and associates for a splendid programme and a gift to each inmate.

The second party was held on December 26 and was a sowing success.

We feel indebted to Mr. Mitchell,

Mrs. Becks, Miss Lee and Miss Johnson, all of the Soldiers and Sailors

Community Club No. 3, 18th and

Vine streets, Mrs. Greer, Misses Sims

and Messrs. Forest Smith, E. B. Perry

and Crawford Darden assisted in the entertainment. The programme consisted of music, readings and songs

and the appreciation of the old inmates cannot be described in words.

There were 16 persons in the party and we are thankful to Mr. Jess Mason and Mrs. Unthank and Bunch for kindly donating their cars. Fifty-five ladies organized by Mrs. Howard M.

Smith prepared boxes for a like number of inmates, and the presentation

of these gifts was the happiest moment for the old folks. Each went to his room after being served with custard and cake, feeling that someone was interested personally in him to the extent of making him a personal gift.

"Blind Jimmie," our own musical prodigy favored us with several violin selections. A Christmas tree, decorated by the employees, added to the scene and the pride which every employee took in making ready for the party was most commendable and appreciated.

The Home was the recipient of a very handsome Victrola, given by a number of ladies headed by Mrs.

Ruth Lange.

CARD OF THANKS.

I wish to thank many many friends,

the Liberty Temple No. 361 for the beautiful flowers, cheerful words and other kindnesses shown me during my recent illness. I feel very deeply indebted to Dr. Bruce for his skillful care and careful attention. I also

thank Mrs. Lee, Peebles and Jones who assisted Dr. Bruce. I am very grateful to my nurse Mrs. J. B. Beckham for her excellent care and thank
